Foreword

IT IS OUR sincere hope that everyone will remember these activities represented in this book, and that they will become more cherished and valuable as time goes on and your happy days at Randolph-Macon recede slowly in the past.

It is hoped too that you will in turn be reminded that this school tried diligently to teach you not only the facts but the art of living—the highest of earthly achievements.

We will consider the hours spent in the preparation of this book worthy ones if these pages inspire you to ever nobler ends and to live in that immortal thought of Grantland Rice:

*"And when the one great Scorer comes,
To write against your name;
He writes not if you won or lost,
But if you played the game."*

ORGANIZATION

JOHN C. BOGGS, Principal
(A.B., Duke University)

A Message . . .

I am grateful for the opportunity and privilege of sending this brief message to the members of the Class of 1944. In doing so I wish to express for myself personally and for our entire Randolph-Macon family appreciation of the splendid spirit of cooperation and loyalty that has characterized your life here in every phase of school activity.

Yours is in a very real sense the War Class. For most of the members of your Class almost every experience at Randolph-Macon has been dated and influenced by the War. But in spite of unusual conditions, — of necessity a part of this world-wide struggle, you have been able to maintain a spirit of calm determination that has made your days and years at Randolph-Macon count for the most in your own and in the Academy's development and progress. And you have in this way better prepared yourselves for the sacrifices and service for your Country that will soon be expected and required of each of you.

We, who continue to "carry on" here, send to the members of the Class of 1944 knowing full well that just as you have measured up to your obligations here you will continue to give your best to the Service of your Nation and of the World, in order that those principles of freedom and justice so dear to the hearts of all true Americans, may be preserved for your own generation and for generations yet unborn. We pray that the God of our Fathers will watch over, protect and guide you always.

John C. Boggs.

PASSING REVIEW

Fifty-second session of Randolph-Macon Academy! Old cadets met old cadets, and greeted new cadets. Classes began, companies were formed; athletic call was answered; and a full year for the cadets was begun. Colonel Petty, the new P. M. S. and T., was introduced and we quickly found him to be a real soldier, gentleman, and friend. A real Army man was ours, and with him as our guide we settled down quickly for military preparedness. Soon the hut, two, three, four of temporary officers and non-commissioned officers could be heard on the roadway, south field and in the woods while the band learned to play string marches. Opening dance saw dashing soldierly boys sway with their dates to the last appearance of the orchestra of in alumnus, Jimmy Dorian. Football season, and what a victory it was! General Order, number 1! Silence held the entire corps as the names of officers and non-commissioned officers for the year were announced. Thanksgiving dinner there was on the Hill and what an abundance! Many new officers felt, for the first time, the pinch of their new Sam Brownes. Snow—clear weather—more snow—the long walk to town became a glazed hill, overhanging with silvery branches. Speck and span cadets in all uniforms posed for pictures just before the Armistice Day parade. The Senior Class was host to the corps at a special dance. Busy days in class, on the drill field and in athletic contests. Christmas leave was announced, busses appeared, and we were off for Washington and home. Back to the Hill with stories of holiday fun. Exam dates posted! Intense concentration for review week. Our first big military exam. Tests for the Air Corps, 'A' tests for the Army and Navy programs quickly followed. We lost two cadets at mid-year to our Uncle Sam's corps. A warm spell right in the middle of our winter. This was quickly followed by more snow—more coasting and ever so much skang. The flu hit us but we were strong and soon the flu-mary was cleared. Basketball games and swimming meets filled our late afternoons while classes and drills took our mornings and early afternoons. Close order and extended order, calisthenics were the orders of the day. Valentine's Day found the Juniors entertaining the corps at a dance. The Yellow Jacket Orchestra, our own orchestra, made its first appearance. New and astounding records were being set each day by the members of our active title team. R. M. A. played host and revived the Virginia Prep School Swimming Meet. Baseball, and track were hampered by cold rainy days but finally the sunny rays shined on the Hill and those two teams and the tennis team did credit to the Jackets' reputation. The Annual Y. M. C. A. dance was our next treat. Spring really flourished in the gym. Company C won the squad competition but all three squads enjoyed the candy they won. The Junior Class had an outdoor supper, and fifty cadets could eat no more! Field Day found perfect weather and many boys were in evidence as C Company again took the day. White goods! Measured, altered, starched. We practiced for our timed Sunday Dress Parades. Hot weather hit the Hill—flowers bloomed in many colored profusion as we studied for final exams, trying to throw off "Spring Fever" and "In the Spring a young man's fancy—". Drill team formed after Mess III every evening and they drilled for perfect mastery for the coming Commencement Exercises. Companies worked hard for the coming competitive drill. Another week of review and anxious eyes scanned mimeographed exam sheets. Competitive Drill! Manual of Arms champion! Baccalaureate Sunday! Senior Luncheon! Band Concert! Last Dress Parade! Colors presented to Company B. Graduation! The flag was lowered as cadets with tear-stained but happy faces saw Colonel Boggs hand Austin the flag, thus bringing to a close that grand old year of '43-'44!

RESUME

Once again as the green turned to gold, a host of hopeful gridiron heroes dug their cleats into the hard turf and were set through their paces under the watchful eyes of Major Riddick and Captain Fouts. Although few of the returning gridgers were lettermen, the gods of football smiled favorably upon them and also upon those who were wearing the Jacket uniform for the first time. Out of this inexperienced squad came three players: Joe Glenn, Jack Mead, and Bill Marsh, who were recognized for their exceptional football ability when the All-State Prep School Football team was selected. These boys led the Jackets through their best season ever. This team from Randolph-Macon was to go down in football annals as first in the nation for military schools, and tied for first place in the State. How did it happen? Here's how:

EPISCOPAL R.N.I. was the first to get the Jackets into the lead by an 18-0 score. The first touchdown was made from the 10 yard line in the early part of the first quarter. The second touchdown was made from the line in the latter part of the first quarter. In the second half Co-Captain Shaffer made his first touchdown and his third touchdown. The game was tied 18-18 at the end of the third quarter. R.M.A. was scoreless for the remainder of the game.

ST. JAMES made the first score in the second quarter when they were down by a score of 18-0. After ten minutes of play the Jackets managed to open a hole through which "Big John" Shaffer made for a touchdown. In the third period Murphy received the ball on a reverse at the left end and zig zaged for the second touchdown of the day. The third and final score was again made by "Faithful" Shaffer.

WOODBRIDGE R.N.I. made the first score in the fourth quarter when they were down by a score of 18-0. The game was tied 18-18 at the end of the third quarter. In the fourth quarter the Jackets made a drive to the 10 yard line before they were brought down. Although the Jackets fought valiantly they suffered the loss of eight men by injuries. The final report of the timer's gun sounded a 16-0 defeat for R.M.A. at the end of the game.

EPISCOPAL HIGH played against R.M.A. and once again the game ended in a tie. The Jackets scored in the first period when an exchange of punts, following Episcopal's fumble on the back of the field, placed the ball on the host's forty-five yard line. R.M.A. made a drive to the 10 yard line and scored a touchdown. The game was tied 6-6 at the end of the first period.

down. In the next few minutes of the game Randolph-Macon suffered a tremendous loss when the player Shaffer suffered an injury which prevented him from playing for the rest of the season. The game was a fast-paced one and was a very exciting one. The Jacks and run backs on punts making the game very exciting. In the fourth quarter the Jacks put over the touchdown that made the score 14-0.

S. D. brought down a light but a very hard hit. The Jacks showed their superiority from the start by sending Thompson over on a spread play in the first few minutes of the game. The visitors received the ball and fought up the field only to lose it on downs. Again R. M. A. pounded its way down to the twenty-yard line where Marsh took a short pass and ran to the goal line. The battle raged furiously up and down the field until Marsh again carried the ball to the goal line a few minutes before the half. In the second half the Jacks led the team by scoring two touchdowns in the first period.

At the end of the first period the score was 14-0. In the second quarter the Jacks had scored two touchdowns and the score was 21-0. In the middle of the next period the Jacks scored a third touchdown and the score was 28-0. In the third quarter the Jacks scored a fourth touchdown and the score was 35-0. In the fourth quarter the Jacks scored a fifth touchdown and the score was 42-0. The game ended with the Jacks leading the team by a score of 42-0.

BENEDICTINE met the Jacks' onslaught the next week-end, only to be defeated by a score of 52-6. Early in the first quarter Murphy hit pay dirt for the first score. Mead faded twice in that half and both passes were completed to Thompson for touchdowns. The second half was the thrilling kind of football that every spectator loves to witness. Jones, L., took a punt on his own twenty-five and sprinted seventy-five yards up the side lines for the fourth score of the game. Once again Mead received the ball and dropped one into Marsh's arms. He was there and waiting for it on the goal side of the goal line. Cofall received a reverse on the next play, charged his field and touched the ball down on the stripe. The last score was again made by Mead who intercepted a pass on the enemy's thirty and smashed over to end the game and the season, the best the Jacks had ever had.

RESUME

Randolph-Macon's Yellow Jacket cagers brought to a close a short but successful court season, under the coaching of Captain James W. Carruth, with a record of six wins against three losses. Prior to the final military league game, in which the Cadets bowed to Staunton, 33-30, the Jackets were in a position to tie for the State military title.

With a 14 man squad, Captain Carruth organized a combination that clicked all season. Beginning with a nucleus of three lettermen from last year's team, Captain Carruth joined the new with the old to turn out a successful Jacket five. Veterans Johnny Shaffer, Jammy Austin and Captain Sydney Thompson supplied the foundation for the varsity quint, while Dick Sommerfeld, a freshman, and Bill Naylor, a junior, completed the starting five.

In the scoring column, eight members of the Cadet squad chucked up a total of 253 points. Top scorer of the season was Sid Thompson, who later won an honorable mention on the all State team at forward. Thompson racked up sixty-five points. Close behind him in second and third spots were Bill Naylor and Johnny Shaffer, with sixty-one and fifty-eight points, respectively.

Other members of the squad who saw action during the season were Glenn Overton, Rennie Cory, Edwin Allen, Bud Marsh, Tom Hessler, Charles Macatee, Charles Lee, Bill Bradley, and Bryan Mitchell.

The Jackets opened their season with a 22-16 win over Winchester's Handley High, but bowed in the second game, losing to Woodberry, 24-17. The Cadets came back in the third game to whip Fishburne, 29-17, and continued their winning streak with a 37-28 triumph over Episcopal High and a revenge victory over Woodberry, 27-25. Trailing all the way in the Woodberry game, the Jackets came from behind at the last minute on baskets by Sommerfeld and Shaffer. Staunton then scored its first win over the Cadets, 42-22, after a 14-12 first half.

Once more R. M. A. came through at the last minute, nipping Fishburne, 34-33, for their second win over the Waynesboro team, and then with a tie for the State championship within their grasp, the Jackets were nosed out by S. M. A. in the season's next to the last game. Had the Jackets won that contest they would have been tied with S. M. A. for the title. In the last game of the season, the Jackets were held by Handley in a sluggish first half but turned on the pressure after the intermission to win a 35-19 score.

From this near victorious squad seven Jackets will return to The Hill next year, so we are anticipating a championship year and team.

THE IMPRINT OF PRIDE

Printing is the great constructive force of the modern civilized world. It plays the indispensable part in the dissemination of news, in the expression and progression of political ideals, in the records and exchange of commerce and industry. It democratizes education, science, art, music—and broadens the scope of everything it touches. To appreciate its high place in the esteem of an enlightened world, Printing must be well done. Our offering to the cause of Better Printing is REPRESENTED IN THIS ANNUAL
